

Golf Retail Manager at Hale Golf Club Pro Shop

Richard Booth is looking for a focused retail manager to deputise and manage every aspect of the day-to-day golf shop operation including staff, stock and meeting the needs and aspirations of the club membership.

The successful candidate will have good commercial and people skills and will understand the importance of providing first-class customer service.

Ideally a passionate golfer of a good standard, you will need to work flexible hours in a five-out-of-seven-day rota, as weekends tend to be the busiest time.

A proven track record in FMCG or high street retail is essential, with experience in merchandising and managing a retail department or operation to a very high standard.

Typical responsibilities of the job include:

- Deputising in the head professional's absence
- Working seamlessly with the head professional to maximise business profitability
- Maintaining high standards of customer service that exceed expectations
- Creating a monthly events calendar to promote and market the business
- Providing and maintaining high standards of merchandising and store presentation to ensure a great retail experience.

OTE £22,000

A basic salary, plus a monthly sales commission structure and a quarterly gross margin profit share bonus is available, along with other benefits including:

- Working in a beautiful and friendly environment
- Use of the course & practice facilities
- Golf equipment at favourable rates
- Complimentary golf tuition.

If you feel that you have the right attitude and skillset to excel in this role, please email your application, detailing your reasons for suitability and current CV, to richardsboothuk@gmail.com